

MORNING APPEAL

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 1

L. P. Fisher, newspaper advertising agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

TWEEDLEDEE—TWEEDLEDUM.

So you belong to the independent voters, do you? Yes. And you voted for Harrison and the Republicans in 1888 did you? Yes. And times grew harder steadily clear through Harrison's administration; the army of the unemployed grew larger and larger every year; wages steadily lowered, business failures constantly increased, and things along financial and industrial lines were generally dissatisfactory; and in 1892 you vote for Cleveland and the Democrats because you were dissatisfied with Harrison and the Republicans? Yes. And Cleveland was elected, and his first official act was to recommend the repeal of the Sherman bill the only legislation favorable to silver, and it was done with the assistance of nine tenths of the Republicans in Congress, placing the nation with its debts on a practically gold basis. His next act was to issue $50,000,000 in gold bonds, stamping them with dies prepared by the Republican Secretary Foster who was getting ready to do the same thing, thereby contracting the currency that much, when the whole nation complained of a lack of money. His next act was to veto the "coinage of silver seigniorage" bill and Republican votes prevented its passage over his head. And the whole Republican press of the nation is sustaining Cleveland's financial policy. And times have been getting steadily worse just as they did under Harrison, and you are dissatisfied, and you tell me you are going back to the Republicans? Yes. You see—well you understand an occasional change—er—well d—n it you cranky Populist you see—Oh! yes, we see you are fascinated with the old games of tweedledee and tweedledum. In 88 you played tweedledee with the Republicans, and lost. In 92 you played tweedledum with the Democrats and lost. And now you expect to play tweedledee some more with the Republicans. And all this time you know that the two old parties are exactly the same on all things that really concern the people. You know their leaders keep the dry bone of the tariff for the rank and file to quarrel over while plutocracy gets away the meat, yet you go on in your blind way, swapping from one old party to the other not caring if the country goes to the demnation bow wows, so long as you can play unmolested the game of tweedledee and tweedledum. You are a fine old patriot you are.—Ex.

THE SERMONIZING GAZETTE.

The Reno Gazette in its Pecksniffian role of Sermonizer to the Nevada press, berates the APPEAL for making any remarks about the late Senator Foley and proceeds to read the usual lecture. It charges the APPEAL with violating certain canons of the craft, but a correspondent in the Journal calls the attention of the Gazette to the fact that on its local page it is practicing exactly the same thing with which it charges the APPEAL.

The Gazette is ever perched on a pinnacle from which it reads sermons to its misguided contemporaries until the Nevada press has begun to regard its vagaries first with puzzled astonishment and then with repressed merriment.

We have yet to meet anyone in this community who takes any exceptions whatever to our comments on Senator Foley's death. The statement that there was no crape on the door was common talk at the Reno train Saturday morning and it was given on the authority of one of the attorneys in the case.

We do not believe in measuring a dead man's character by the length of his purse any more than we would measure the influence of the Reno Gazette by the length and frequency of its sermons.

A report comes from Washington that Commandment Hawson and Commander McCalla at Mare Island have had a serious disagreement. The report says the Commandment notified Secretary Herbert that the equipment officer was not competent to perform the duties of the office.

Anti-Barnacle.

The Tribune of last evening says: Now that the strike excitement is over, our people are turning their attention to politics and candidates are bobbing up and being discussed. Both parties recognize that they have no walk-over, and that barnacles must be relegated to the rear, and new and vigorous blood be brought to the front.

We are glad to see our neighbor come out as an anti-barnacle organ. But in case the Republican party renominates its defeated barnacles of the last campaign, the Tribune will have to pull into line as usual.

The Spanish matador was charged, knocked over and trampled upon by a vicious bull at the fiesta at Santa Cruz Saturday. A cowboy was, at his earnest solicitation, then permitted to ride the animal, which he did, but he was finally thrown and the bull rolled him and kicked him until the cowboy threw a lasso over one of the bulls legs. But the rope caught the fallen man also, and the bull, on a run, dragged the cowboy for a hundred yards and then again turned on the victim. A man in the audience who had a ferocious bulldog unsmuzzled him, and the brute in a moment was fastened on the bulls neck. The man was tossed and the dog had to be hit on the head before he would let go.

The Sunday School of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Picnic at Cooks Ranch, tomorrow August 2nd, and will meet at the Church building at 8 o'clock on that morning where conveyances will be in readiness. Parents of the Children and friends of the school are invited to attend.

People who contemplate a trip to the mountains for an outing can not do better than pack up and go to the Rubican Springs. The best way to reach the Springs is by McKinney's Lake Tahoe, thence by stage eight miles, through a wild and picturesque country. Vade Clarke the proprietress, has made a number of improvements and the place is more attractive than ever before.
